Course Description:

This course is designed for educators who aspire to gain knowledge and improve their educational practices and skills. Participants attending the 2021 Great Ideas in Education Conference will focus on school improvement and the continuous improvement of academic performance for all students. Participants will have the opportunity to select sessions and workshops on topics connected to their area of interest.

Course Objectives: At the end of the course, participants will be able to:

1. Illustrate engagement with the key issues presented in the sessions attended.
2. Model decision making and planning skills that are based on knowledge of content area, best practices, and curriculum goals in relationship to continuous improvement.
3. Articulate effective methods to manage and monitor student learning and academic performance

Textbook/Materials: None

Content Outline: Attend Kick-Off Session, 2 Keynote Sessions, and 5 Breakout Sessions of your choice.

Assessment:

1. Attend the KSDE Annual Conference and choose the sessions/workshops of your choice.
2. Write a reflection paper that identifies the sessions/workshops you attended. Identify the sessions you attended by session title and presenter(s). Your paper should be 3-5 pages double spaced.
3. Give an overview and your reaction. Some questions to incorporate into your paper could include what was gained/learned from the session, how will you use this information in your work, as well as thoughts and ideas you have from the overall conference that may impact or change your professional and/or personal beliefs and practice.
4. The deadline for this assignment is Sunday, Nov. 28th, 11:59 p.m.

Attendance Expectations: Participants must attend the 2019 KSDE Annual Conference that includes attendance at a minimum of 1 General Session, 1 Keynote, and 5 Breakout Sessions. Baker University policy prohibits a candidate from earning credit if more than 30% of a course is missed.

Academic Integrity: Academic Integrity is defined in the Baker University SPGS and SOE Catalog: “Baker University is committed to academic integrity in the performance of scholarly responsibilities. Academic integrity is defined as the honest acknowledgement of ideas, words, data, written work, and solutions. All work submitted by a Baker University student must represent the student’s original work. All forms of student dishonesty constitute academic misconduct.”

“Academic Misconduct” includes but is not confined to the following: plagiarizing, cheating on an assignment and/or assessments; turning in counterfeit reports, tests, and papers; stealing tests and other academic material, forgery or knowingly falsifying academic records or documents, and turning in the same work to more than one class. The definition of plagiarism and counterfeit work follows. The definitions of the other terms are found in the SPGS/GSOE catalog.

Counterfeit work includes work submitted as one’s own that was created, researched, or produced by someone else. Submission of the work of another person, joint work as if that work was solely one’s own, or production of work to be submitted in the name of another person.

Plagiarism is the intentional or unintentional failure to accurately attribute ideas, words, works, data, or solutions to the source of that information. It is the candidate’s responsibility to seek guidance from approved writing standards. For more information about plagiarism, see the Baker University SPGS and SOE Catalog.

Academic Integrity is defined in the Baker University SPGS and SOE Catalog: “Baker University is committed to academic integrity in the performance of scholarly responsibilities. Academic integrity is defined as the honest acknowledgement of ideas, words, data, written work, and solutions. All work submitted by a Baker University student must represent the student’s original work. All forms of student dishonesty constitute academic misconduct.”

“Consequences of academic dishonesty may include, but are not limited to, a zero or failing grade for an assignment, a failing grade for the course, or dismissal/expulsion from the University. Any form of academic misconduct which results in administrative or academic withdrawal or dismissal/expulsion is noted on the student’s transcript.

ADA Policy: Baker University is committed to providing “reasonable accommodations” in keeping with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act and the Americans with Disability Act of 1992.
